

INDIAN TROUBLES.

Lieut. Dixon Reports That the Stories of the Uprising Are Greatly Exaggerated.

SAYS HE ENCOUNTERED NO REDSKINS.

Marshal Bennett, of Muskogee, I. T., Thinks the Threatened Rebellion is Now Well in Hand.

Outside Towns in the Territory Are Armed and Prepared For Any Emergency—Most of Them Have Pickets on Duty.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 26.—Gen. Lee has received a telegraphic report from Lieut. Dixon, commanding the troop of cavalry sent to the scene of the Creek Indian troubles. He states that he has not yet made a full investigation, but has learned enough to warrant his saying that the reports of an uprising have been greatly exaggerated. Thus far he has encountered no Indians, and from civilians he learns there has been no violence on the part of the Indians, and he anticipates none. The report of Lieut. Dixon comes from Henrietta, which place he reached during the forenoon.

To Be Tried For Treason.

Muskogee, I. T., Jan. 26.—Marshal Bennett, in an interview, stated that, while the situation is still alarming, he thinks it is now in hand. United States Judge Jos. A. Gill has ordered Commissioner Thomas A. Sanson to proceed with Marshal Bennett and deputies and join the troops now at Henrietta, and try all light horsemen on a charge of treason and commit them to jail. Over 50 writs have been issued for the arrest of light horsemen and leaders. Attorney General Griggs has instructed Marshal Bennett to render all assistance possible to towns and people, and placed $1,000 at his disposal at once. Marshal Bennett took 20 deputies and left Saturday overland for the scene of trouble.

The Snake Band Holds a Council. The Snake band had a council at Hickorytown which is still in session. Outside towns are armed, prepared for any emergency. Several towns in the Creek Nation have pickets out.

South McAlester, I. T., Jan. 26.—There were no new developments in the threatened Choctaw uprising Saturday. Several deputies came in and reported that the Indians were keeping quiet. One said their plans had been given away by somebody, and they were going to make new ones. The Choctaws have no active leader, and the organization is not as perfect as in the Creek Nation. Gov. Duke, at Ft. Smith, sends instructions to the sheriffs to arrest trouble-makers.

No Uneasiness Among Whites. No uneasiness is felt among the whites anywhere in the Choctaw Nation. Crazy Snake, in an interview, said his party were the regular Creeks, composed of the rank and file of Creek Indians, the original treaty Indians, who desire to stand by the treaty rights guaranteed by the United States long ago, rights which they would never voluntarily surrender. He declared Chief Porter and the men squaws and a lot of their followers traitors and violators of the Creek laws and traditions which he and his followers were prepared to sacrifice their lives, if necessary, to preserve. It is reported that ex-Sheriff Roberts, a full-blood Choctaw, has organized a band of 200 disaffected Indians west of Atoka, Choctaw Nation.

ENTIRE CREW PERISHED.

Wreckage From the Salmon Steamer Ardanamurchan Found on the Coast of Vancouver Island.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 26.—There is little doubt that the wreckage found along the west shore of Vancouver island near the mouth of Columbia river is from the salmon steamer Ardanamurchan. It is believed the entire crew perished. For the last two weeks it has been certain in the minds of marine men that a disaster had taken place off the coast of Vancouver island. Small parts of wreckage have been found and word was received that marked cases of salmon had been picked up further south.

Permission is hereby granted the Saengerfest Athletic Association Co., a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Ohio, to hold two sparring contests, one not to exceed ten rounds, at Convention hall, southeast corner Nine and Erkenbrecher avenue, on February 15, 1901, by authority vested in the mayor under section 6890, Revised Statutes, Ohio laws.

JULIUS FLEISCHMANN, Mayor.

Too Late For an Injunction.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—If the only hope of the opponents of the Jeffries-Rubin fight hinges on preventing it through ousting the Saengerfest Athletic club from its charter, they might as well break the hinge.

It is now too late to oust the club before the fight. Attorney General Sheets made this statement Friday. He said that if he should be requested by the Cincinnati people to bring quo warranto suit, and should bring one, the club would have 30 days in which to answer, and the fight will be over before that time. There could be no injunction against the club pending a decision, the attorney general said.

When asked if he intended bringing suit to oust the Saengerfest Athletic club from its charter, he said: "I have never heard anything about this matter except what I have seen in and been told by published in Cincinnati papers. They have been talking about certain lawyers going to have me bring suit in quo warranto, but nobody has ever consulted or requested me to take such action, nor have I given the matter consideration of my own volition."

CUT HIS THROAT.

John H. Gordon, Charged With Burning His Wife to Death, Succeeded to Escape Arrest.

Woodbury, Tenn., Jan. 26.—John H. Gordon, charged with burning his wife to death last Sunday morning, cut his own throat to escape arrest. Officers pursuing the alleged murderer found his body in Warren county, near Luckey, soon after death had resulted. The first reports of Mrs. Gordon's death said she was burned to death accidentally. Later ugly rumors began to circulate, and John Wilson, a brother to the dead woman, swore out a warrant against Gordon, charging him with the woman's murder. Upon learning this the accused man fled, with officers in pursuit. Five small children are made orphans by the double tragedy.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION. A Shot Fired Into the Boat in Which the Queen Regent of Spain and Children Were Riding.

London, Jan. 26.—"While the queen regent and her children were boating in the royal park on the outskirts of Madrid Saturday," says the Madrid correspondent of the Daily Express, "a shot was fired from the bank and penetrated the gunwale of the boat. The park was searched but the assailant was not discovered. The queen regent was considerably alarmed."

Stewart, chairman of the national committee, for a national prohibition conference to be held at Buffalo in August. Arizona Statehood Bill Postponed. Washington, Jan. 26.—The senate committee on territories has decided to report favorably an amendment to the Alaska laws under which excess of license moneys designated for school uses may be applied to municipal purposes in that territory, and postponed the Arizona statehood bill for this congress.

IT WAS AGREED TO.

The Conference Report Upon the Reorganization Bill Adopted by the House.

CONTEST OVER IT WAS VERY BRIEF.

Senator Depew Delivered an Eloquent Address in Support of the Shipping Bill in the Senate.

It Was in the Nature of an Appeal For the Upholding of the American Merchant Marine By the Granting of Subsidies.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The house adopted the conference report upon the army reorganization bill. The contest over it was brief, Mr. Hull, chairman of the military affairs committee, preventing prolonged debate. The debate was chiefly notable for a short exchange between Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, and Mr. Ray (dem. Va.), a member of the conference committee, who reproached the democratic leader for not making a fight for a temporary army when the bill was originally before the house. The naval appropriation bill was finally passed Friday, and also 77 private pension bills.

Consular and Diplomatic Bill.

The consular and diplomatic appropriation bill carrying something over $1,700,000, was reported by the house committee on foreign affairs. It provides $20,000 for purchasing land at Peking for the United States legation there, Minister Conger having advised the extension. Other changes made by the bill are: Salary of minister to Bolivia increased from $2,000 to $7,500; consulate established at New Chwang, China, at $2,000, and at Moscow, Russia, at $1,500; consulate at Chung King, China, abolished; consul general at Constantinople made United States agent at Sofia, Bulgaria, and salary raised from $2,500 to $4,000.

Senate Proceedings.

Senator Depew (N. Y.) delivered in the senate a characteristically forceful and eloquent address in support of the shipping bill. The address, which occupied just an hour, was in the nature of an appeal for the upholding of the American merchant marine by the granting of subsidies, as provided for in the pending measure. His discussion of the problems of transportation which confront American manufacturers and American farmers was notably interesting and effective. The peroration, in which he urged that the American flag be restored to the mastsheads of the freight-carrying ships of the United States, was a brilliant piece of oratory and elicited cordial applause from senators on the floor and the crowds in the galleries.

Little progress was made with the Indian appropriation bill. The last hour of the senate was consumed in the passage of private pension bills.

Extra Session Probable.

Discussion over the prospects of an extra session, which ceased some weeks ago, when the then pending bills were carried through without prolonged debate, has been suddenly revived. Within the last few days the conviction seems to have been reached among many senators that an extra session is inevitable.

DESTRUCTIVE BUSH FIRES.

Many People Are Dropping Dead From the Heat, Thermometers Registering From 115 to 120.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 26.—The destruction of bush fires in Australia, according to mail advices by the steamship Aorangi, have been appalling. Many people are dropping dead from heat, the thermometer running up to 115 and 120 in the shade. Hundreds of families have been burned out. Many marvelous rescues were made. One man in a farmer's wagon drove 160 persons from the fire circle and sure death, three miles to a river where they all remained immersed with their mouths and noses above water only until the fire passed over them. Many miles of grain have been destroyed and great droves of sheep and cattle.

MIDNIGHT BLAZE.

Pitkin & Brook's Wholesale Glassware and Crockery Store, in Chicago, Burned.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Fire of a mysterious origin destroyed the big wholesale glassware and crockery store of Pitkin & Brooks, Lake and State streets, early Saturday morning, causing a loss of $550,000 and injuring several firemen. The latter were hurt by falling glassware or were scorched by flames which suddenly burst from the windows.

The fire was first discovered in the rear part of the second story and evidently had been burning slowly some time. Adjacent buildings, though seriously threatened, were saved.

In front of the Pitkin & Brooks building is the Union Elevated Loop railway, which was damaged somewhat by the intense heat. The loss on the building is $500,000; on stock, $500,000, all well insured.

The firm of Pitkin & Brooks is one of the oldest in Chicago.

MURDERED MILLIONAIRE.

Mrs. Richardson Must Answer to Being Accessory After the Fact to Killing of Her Husband.

Savannah, Mo., Jan. 26.—Addie L. Richardson, widow of the murdered millionaire merchant, Frank L. Richardson, at the last minute decided to waive a preliminary hearing on the charge of being accessory after the fact to the murder of her husband, and her case will be called in the circuit court on March 4.

George Vaught, the sweetheart of Besie Phillips, servant in the Richardson home at the time of the murder, was arrested for assaulting the girl and her escort two nights ago. The defense is still working on the line that Vaught was jealous of Frank Richardson, the murdered man, and knows all about the crime.

LAST LOVING LOOK

In Death Queen Victoria's Face Was Lovelier Than in the Closing Days of Life.

NO TRACE OF THE RAVAGE OF DISEASE

The Remains of Great Britain's Greatest Ruler Are Forever Closed From Human View.

Emperor William Wept Even More Bitterly Than the Royal Ladies.—The Grief of Princess Beatrice Was Pitiful.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 26.—The royal family Friday took their last loving look at the features of the dead queen. About 10 o'clock in the morning the shell was brought into the bedroom, where were waiting King Edward, Emperor William, the duke of Connaught, Sir James Reid and the royal ladies. The latter having retired, Sir James Reid with reverent hands, assisted by three trusted household servants, and in the presence of the king, the emperor and the duke, removed the body from the bed to the coffin. In death it was lovelier than in the closing days of life. Not a trace of the ravages of disease was visible.

White-Robed and Peaceful Figure.

The servants having retired, Queen Alexandra, the princess and the children were recalled, and with lingering steps and stifled sobs they passed slowly before the white-robed and peaceful figure. At the foot, never moving, stood the king, and when the mourning crowd had passed there remained only the son and grandson of the dead. Emperor William wept even more bitterly than the royal ladies. Finally he also retired, and the king was left alone. Sir James Reid, beckoning to the servants who were holding the coffin lid, asked the king's instructions.

The King Was Speechless.

For a few seconds the king stood speechless, stricken with emotion at the last farewell. Then he said quickly: "Close it finally. It must not be opened again."

Thus the remains of England's greatest ruler were forever closed from human view. Reverently the coffin was borne into the dining room. Officers and men from the royal yachts took their stand around the coffin, over which the king, queen and kaiser gently laid the robes of a knight of the garter, placing at the head a diamond crown. Beneath lay the royal ensign, while hanging above was the union jack. At the altar was the rector of Whippingham, who read a portion of the funeral service in the presence of the royal family.

Emperor William Covered His Face.

Emperor William covered his face with his hands, and the grief of Princess Beatrice was pitiful. After the benediction each placed a wreath upon the coffin, and then all retired.

It is stated that the queen's will has not been opened, and that, according to the present arrangements, it will not be opened until after the funeral, its details being unknown to the royal family. There is no truth in the statement that King Edward and Emperor William knelt by the bedside of the queen and swore to preserve peace.

A significant feature of all the death-bed scenes has been their absolute naturalness and the absence of false or dramatic elements.

The Greatest Naval Parade.

According to a rumor circulating at Osborne, King Edward desires himself to be styled his imperial majesty in order to emphasize the fact he is emperor as well as king. Saturday the local volunteers and the forces in the vicinity passed through the chapel ardente. After these passed the correspondents of the leading papers of the world.

A very remarkable feature of all the proceedings is the intense martial air which pervades them. The naval parade off Spithead is to be the greatest, if possible, the world ever saw, and the military arrangements at Windsor will eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted.

Grenadiers mounted their silent guard over the coffin with guns reversed, arms crossed and heads bent. The silence is unbroken save by an occasional shuffle from the soldiers in changing their uneasy position.

CORONATION OF KING EDWARD.

The President Will Likely Appoint a Commission to Represent the United States on the Occasion.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The president probably will designate a representative of the United States army, one of the navy and at least one prominent civilian to act in conjunction with Mr. Choate in representing the government of the United States at the coronation of King Edward VII. This will be in line with the precedent established in the case of the coronation of the present czar. The precedent calls for officers of high rank for such an occasion.

It is expected that the coronation will not take place for about six months.

Murderer Executed.

Franklin, La., Jan. 26.—Arthur Pierre, the Negro murderer of Henry Neil, was hanged here.
